

Pictured above are the retired firemen, their wives and widows who were honored on the sixtieth anniversary of the Heber Valley Volunteer Fire Dept. (from l to r): Don Smith, Jerry Davis, Asst. Chief, Norma Smith, Mrs. Ralph Giles, Ralph Giles, Doug

Smith, Rachel Smith, Birdie Turnbow, Betty Montgomery, Neil Montgomery, Maureen Thomas, Lois Wright, Ruby Jasperson, Dove and Orvel MacAfee, Steve Ivie, Chief.

Firemen Mark Sixty Years of Service

The Heber Valley Volunteer Fire Department celebrated their sixtieth birthday last Saturday with a steak fry held at the Midway Shelter.

The event also commemorated sixty years of service by the department to the communities of Heber Valley. While the firemen are noted for their service, they chose to use the occasion to honor those of their group who had retired. Certificates of appreciation were presented to the retirees and their widows.

Honored were Don Smith, Norma Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Giles, Doug and Rachel Smith, Birdie Turnbow, Neil and Betty Montgomery, Maureen Thomas, Lois Wright, Ruby Jasperson, Dove and Arvel MacAfee, Verl Wright, Dick Jones, Earl Smith, Doyle Smith, Hilton Birch, Jay Giles, Neil Bethers, Violet Olpin, Thelma Wooton, and Marvel Hylton.

n Wave

Inside this Issue

Editorial.....	5A
Lifestyle.....	6A
Classified.....	2B
Sports.....	1B

25c

r 26, 1985

Issue 30

Parties Hold Nominating Convent

HEBER CITY (Sept. 23) - Both political parties in Heber City held nominating conventions this evening to nominate candidates for the city election this fall. At stake in the election are the mayor's post and two council positions.

Jack Gill was selected by the Democrats to run for mayor. His running mates for Candidate for Mayor.